The condition under that theory, it was grandly promised, would no longer confront the country. But even without free trade the Democracy is finding out that the surplus is ratirely manageable. A long session of Congress alone is re-quired in order to get rid of it. A more comical situation was never known in American policies than the present plight of the Democratic party respecting the surplus. Last December the President portrayed the country as on the verge of indescribable disaster in consequence of that appealing surplus. Every Free Trader who addressed the House banked upon the surplus, figuratively speaking, in order to have his drafts upon the credulity of the country liquidated. The surplus

-Those that have agreed to furnish material for the log cabin will please deliver the same as soot as possible. The campaign is now upon us, and we want to show up the largest Republican vote ever east in Forbes. Stop sourling, and get right down to work. Lond talk and swearing don't make votes. The convention is over. If your choice was not nombated that is no reason you should not vote your principles. Come right along, let us redeem Messourt this year. It has always beenfond of Forbes well done? after all elections. Is there any one now, right in the face of victory, that can refuse to do his whole duty.

The Alliance met in the Methodist church at Craig at 4 o close p. m. August 21st. Devotional services were conducted by Rev. Sapp. of Mound City, after which Rev. T. D. Roberts, of Oregon, Frestdent of the Alliance, took the churt. Minutes of last meeting read and constitution signed by the ministers present. Then came the address of H. F. Tandy or "How to reach the Masses with the Gospel," followed by mearly all present, each adding some thought to those already presented. At the night session the question of "Temperance in our county," was opened in a clear and foreible speech by H. J. LaTour, of Forest City. One thing was made manifest in this meeting, that the question "Should Places of Resort he Fronde for Our Young People, especially in towns and either." A. J. Voegelein led the discussion which bought out a great variety of sentiment and became deeply interesting. Almost all being in favor of some place but difference widely as to the kind of place. "Should the Bible based as a Text Book in our Public Schools," was the next question, led by Frol. Rice, who thought it would be a good thing but imprantacioned in the present divided state of the clumen, The discussion was warm and carnest part affirming and part denying the leastbody of Such a thing.
